

Avaya Aura Communication Manager Messaging Embedded Administration, Maintenance, and Troubleshooting

5M00050

Duration: 5 days

Overview

This course is designed to provide hands-on practice on Communication Manager Messaging Embedded 6.0.1 to perform administration, maintenance, and troubleshooting functions. This course provides training in setting up and managing privileged and non-privileged user accounts. The learner will be able to set up and manage administrative data. In addition, this course provides opportunities to perform regular backups and restore activities. This course also provides methods to improve performance optimization and increase security. Learners will be able to download and apply the latest Remote Field Updates (RFUs). Learners will also be able to interpret alarms and events.