IBM Tivoli Endpoint Manager 8.1 Content Development
TP431G

Delivery Type: Classroom
Duration: 2 days

Overview

This course presents a brief review of Tivoli Endpoint Manager (TEM) 8.1 basic knowledge, and then focuses on TEM content, use of Relevance tools including the Fixlet debugger, object usage, general Relevance language forms and constructs, available objects and usage, action scripting, and advanced Relevance usage.

Objectives

✓ Understand role of content in Tivoli Endpoint Manager operation
✓ Explore structure and syntax of Relevance Language
✓ Introduce essential Action Script commands
✓ Create custom Fixlets and Tasks to take targeted actions
✓ Create custom Analysis to retrieve client information

Pre-Requisites

Students must understand Tivoli Endpoint Manager 8.1 administration, wich is covered in course IBM Tivoli Endpoint Manager 8.1 Administration (TP421) Students should also have a working knowledge of Windows and Linux operating systems.

Target Audience

This advanced course is for developers of custom Fixlets and tasks. Deployment specialists will also benefit from this course.