

HP-UX Performance Management: WLM & PRM

U5447S

Delivery Type: Classroom

Duration: 3 days

Overview

This course covers the installation, configuration, monitoring and management of Process Resource Manager (PRM) and Workload Manager (WLM), key components of HP's adaptive infrastructure. Class participants will reinforce the lecture theory with a series of hands-on exercises on. This 3 day course is 50% lecture and 50% hands-on.

Pre-Requisites

Students should have a sound knowledge of HP-UX system administration.

Objectives

- ✓ HP Process Resource Manager (PRM) Review
- ✓ Troubleshooting PRM
- ✓ Monitoring using EMS
- ✓ WLM and partitioning
- ✓ Using WLM on a partitionable system
- ✓ Advanced Topic-WLM configuration file syntax

- ✓ Understand HP-UX and SNMP support
- ✓ Understand and utilize WLM
- ✓ Understand WLM auditing and billing the Management Processor
- ✓ Using WLM in a single OS instance
- ✓ Nested partitioning a TICAP
- ✓ Advanced topic- WLMTX and integration with other products

Target Audience

This course is suitable for Experienced system administrators and consultants.

Follow on Courses

HP-UX Partition Management with vPars and nPars. U5075S